

Resolution relating to the duty of the Secretary of the Senate

Resolved That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Senate that he shall preserve carefully all the papers, documents and other articles belonging to the Senate. It shall have the formally legibly and correctly recorded. He shall also keep a Journal of the secret sessions, to which none shall have access, but the members of Congress whose proceeding they are; he shall arrange the papers so that they may be referred to easily and shall superintend the printing of the same.

Resolved That said officer shall receive his pay on the certificate of the Secretary of State which shall be sufficient for the Auditor to audit the same.

Signed - David G. Burnes - TX

President of the Senate
Department of State Feb 15 '39 I certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original resolution on file in the Department

Mathl. C. Amory
Chief Clerk